

Sergeant Niki Crawford, Indiana State Police

Niki Crawford is a Sergeant with the Indiana State Police Methamphetamine Suppression Unit. She has been a trooper with the State Police for 12 years. She has been working with the Drug Enforcement Section and the Clandestine Laboratory team for more than six years planning and providing training for public safety personnel and other interested parties on clandestine labs. Crawford has been a member of the ISP Clan Lab team for over two years. Her current assignment is to assist in organizing and starting the methamphetamine suppression unit, which will combine pro-active Meth investigations and clandestine lab clean up.